We do this both with the Government of Kenya and nongovernmental organizations, in close collaboration with other donors and under the leadership of the U. S. Ambassador to Kenya. In the testimony I have submitted for the record, I provide substantial detail on these programs. Therefore, I would like to highlight just two of them now - legislative strengthening, and political competition and consensus-building. The goal of our work in legislative strengthening is to improve the effectiveness of Kenyas Parliament. To achieve this objective, we work through our partner, the State University of New York, to strengthen key parliamentary committees. Program activities contribute to improving Parliaments oversight of the national budget and corruption-related issues. The focus of USAID support is the departmental communities that shadow government ministries, address budget issues, and play watchdog roles. Our elections and political processes program was part of a multidonor effort to help Kenya set the stage for credible Presidential, parliamentary and local elections in 2007. Developing the capacity of the Electoral Commission of Kenya ( ECK ) was central to our efforts. The International Foundation for Election Systems or IFES had been providing assistance to the ECK since late 2001, but our support through IFES has now ended. Activities focused on providing appropriate technology for more efficient and transparent elections administration, while improving the skills - the technical skills of the ECK staff. We also channeled funding through the Joint Donor Elections Assistance Program, managed by the United Nations Development Program. This program focused on increasing the efficiency and...
