Excerpt: . . . chapter I. formation of regiment The Trip Across In the great World War, as in all other wars in which this country has been engaged, the negro has proven himself to be an interesting as well as an important factor. On January 1st, 1918, when it was announced that the negro soldiers would be mobilized and sent overseas to take part in the struggle, the eyes of the world were turned on the American negro. The patriotism and fidelity of these people had been rather doubtfully viewed by those who had not been closely related to them. When the call for volunteers came the negro National Guard units rapidly recruited to war strength, and when the draft came they responded to their countrys call. The period from January 1st to June 15th, 1918, was one of preparedness on both sides of the ocean, for...
